

2019 TOM ANGELL FELLOWSHIP

The Graduate Division is now accepting nominations for the Tom Angell Fellowship, which will be awarded in winter 2019. This fellowship is intended to honor Tom Angell's contributions as our Graduate Counselor to graduate student wellness and retention. The award is open to graduate students, faculty, and postdoctoral scholars.

Award Amount

One $500 fellowship award will be made to one graduate student; one $500 award will be made to one faculty member; and one $500 award will be made to one postdoctoral scholar. The faculty award must be used as a fellowship to a student of the faculty's choice. The student and postdoctoral scholar awards must be used to support student/postdoc professional development.

Qualifications

Faculty Nominees

1. Must have shown excellent mentorship of UC Irvine graduate students

Student Nominees

1. Must have shown excellent mentorship of fellow UC Irvine graduate students
2. Must be making satisfactory academic progress

Postdoctoral Scholar Nominees

1. Must have shown excellent mentorship of UC Irvine graduate students or fellow postdoctoral scholars.

Please confirm that the nominee holds a postdoctoral title with UCI before submitting a nomination.*

Evaluation Criteria

It is desirable that the student/faculty/postdoc takes initiative as a mentor, and for whom mentoring is a habit.

Elements of the Proposal

1. Completed application, including, in 250 words or less, why you feel that the student/faculty/postdoc is an excellent mentor to other UCI students.

Awardees will receive more specific information regarding procedures and guidelines for receipt of funds.*

Submission deadline: Friday, January 18, 2019 at 5:00pm

Submit proposals to: Turner Dahl, tdahl@uci.edu
