James Harvey Scholar

Overview
The James Harvey Scholar award provides financial support to graduate students who demonstrate outstanding past academic achievement as well as future promise, have financial need, and are completing a publishable thesis or dissertation on homosexuality or the life or works of James Harvey.

Award Amount
This award provides resident fees and a stipend of $9,000 during Spring Quarter of the academic year of the award. Nonresident supplemental tuition and professional degree supplemental tuition are not included.

Submission Deadline: November 17, 2022

Eligibility Criteria
- Students must be pursuing a Ph.D. or master's degree. Students enrolled in self-supporting programs are not eligible.
- Must be in good academic standing
- Must demonstrate financial need
- Must have advanced to candidacy and be in their final year of study
- Must be writing a thesis or dissertation on homosexuality or the life or works of James Harvey. Priority will be given to students researching male homosexuality.

Application Process
Complete the application form, obtain the signature of the Graduate Associate Dean in your school and combine all materials in a single pdf in the order listed below:

1. James Harvey Scholar Application Form (complete with all signatures)
2. U.S. citizens - apply for FAFSA. International students – submit statement of financial need from faculty advisor or department chair.
3. Recommendation letter from faculty advisor or department chair
4. Current Curriculum Vitae (CV)
5. Unofficial transcripts through Spring Quarter

To apply, submit these materials using the James Harvey Scholar – Submission Form by November 17, 2023. Be advised, late or incomplete submissions will not be accepted.

Review Process
A panel of faculty will review all qualified applications and make award recommendations to the Dean. Awards will be announced in January for disbursement in Spring Quarter.
